> Comments: Windswept farms in Arthur, IL owned by Larry Hershberger had the fence row behind my house and others on Dogwood Drive sprayed with weed killer. The spray killed some of my plants in my yard. I'm also, afraid to walk my dogs in my back yard because, of the over spray. I smelled something weird the other day but, did not realize at that time what it was. My mother also, likes to set outside. No one should have overspray in their yard.
